

Dormitory applications for exchange students and foreign freshmen students

1. Exchange students admitted through exchange applications of the year and foreign freshmen students shall enjoy the priority of dormitory allocation and shall not need to enter the draw for the accommodation.
2. Foreign students who have cancelled the dormitory accommodation due to suspension from the university or other reasons, who now wish to reapply for accommodation, should submit dormitory applications at the end of each semester and enter the draw with other students.